DAYTON BACH SOCIETY
TO HOLD AUDITIONS

DAYTON, Ohio, August 29, 1978 --- Auditions for the 1978-1979 season of the Dayton Bach Society will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 5 and 6, from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m. in Room 123 of the new Music-Theatre Building of the University of Dayton. Information regarding auditions can be obtained from Dr. Richard Benedum, director of the Bach Society, in care of the UD Music Department.

The Dayton Bach Society, now beginning its fifth season, has scheduled several concerts during the coming season, beginning with a Fall Bach-Fest cycle of three concerts in mid-November. Featured guest artist in the Bach-Fest concerts will be Dayton-area native Charles Benbow, who will play an all-Bach organ recital and also appear as one of several harpsichordists in Bach's Concertos for Three and Four Harpsichords and Orchestra (in C Major and A Minor, respectively). The Bach Society chorus will be heard in motets of Bach, Handel's Messiah, and various chorale settings by area composers and arrangers as part of the Fall Bach-Fest.

Future concerts by the Bach Society later in the season will highlight a cycle of Bach cantatas and motets, as well as choral music by Mendelssohn, Olivier Messiaen, the contemporary German Heinz Werner Zimmermann, and others.

Ticket information for the Bach Society season can also be obtained by contacting the University of Dayton Music Department. For further information contact Dr. Richard Benedum, c/o UD Music Department, 229-3936, ext.7.
